ALBION claims more pretty girls in proportion to population than any other town in the state. It's a mistake. Fort Wayne heads the list by a big majority.

A BILL is introduced in the Michigan legislature providing for the building of a reform home for inebriates. Funds for its support are to be taken from the liquor tax collected in each county.

SOME weeks since the various Catholic churches in this city took collections for the aid of suffering members of that church in Ireland. About $3,700 was raised and this sum was sent to the various parishes in the Emerald isle. Letters have been received from Ireland acknowledging the receipt of the money.

MR. CLEVELAND has been interviewed in relation to the statement made by the Washington Post to the effect that he had definitely decided not to come before the people as a presidential candidate in 1892. With a delicate blending of humor and sarcasm Mr. Cleveland said: "It is entirely untrue so far as I am acquainted with any of the facts in connection with it. I believe it to be a mere sensation."

TWO HUNDRED members of the Ex-Confederate association of Missouri, in their old war uniforms, trimmed with crape in mourning for their conqueror's death, was not the least touching spectacle in General Sherman's funeral cortege at St. Louis last Saturday. The tears of those who wore the blue and those who wore the gray fell together, and it was a touching and impressive lesson. They realized that the war is over and joined each other in this solemn and last tribue to the dead. Were it not for the waving of the "bloody shirt" by those who did not fight on either side, the animosities engendered by the war of the rebellion would have long since been buried.

THE appointment of ex-Gov. Charles Foster, of Ohio, as secretary of the treasury is one of the best that the president could have made. He is a man of strong personal worth, large experience as a successful business man, and well acquainted with public affairs. It is now recalled to his credit that he of all the republican leaders during the reconstruction period was the first to break away from the party program of bayonet rule in the south. Mr. Foster has had business sense enough to increase the $100,000 left him by his father to a fortune estimated to amount to $5,000,000. When asked at New York yesterday for his views on the financial question he said. "I am in accord with the president and his party, and my policy will be the same as Mr. Windom's, as far as I can see now. I am in accord further with the president and his party to increase the trade of the country through reciprocity treaties. I am a firm protectionist and a strong advocate of the restoration of our foreign shipping interests."

THERE have been in circulation for the last three or four days painful rumors as to the estate of Secretary Windom. One is that his family has been left in poverty. It is true that Mr. Windom died a comparatively poor man, but he has left some estate, the income of which, although small, will contribute something to the support of the family, if it shall not wholly maintain them. The property is said to be of such a character that it may materially increase within the next few years. At present, however, the income is said not to be more than sufficient to actually pay the rent of the house in which the secretary lived at the time he died. Upon this house he had an option to purchase at the end of three years only one of which has expired. It is understood that he has left to his family an income not much over $3,000 annually. He has one insurance policy of $5,000 which has been running so long that he has paid to the company more than the face value, it is said, and also one for $2,000. The rest of his estate is in the west, and a considerable portion of it is unproductive.

Interesting Services Held at Different Churches.

Chancellor J. F. Lang preached the sermon at the Cathedral yesterday morning, and the immense edifice was crowded with an interested audience. He addressed himself more particularly to indolent Christians. There are many, he said, who have taken upon themselves the vows of the church who have become indolent and lukewarm in the performance of their Christian duties. They become wavering and undecided. They make good resolutions that are never kept, and allow themselves to drift farther and farther away from duty and from God. The Christian cannot be careless and indolent in his religious duties and serve God. During these Lenten services, he said, was a good time for them to look within themselves, examine their hearts and their actions and see wherein they were untrue to their vows. He appealed to the indolent to not only renew their good promises, but to carry them out. Come back to God and be true and decided followers of the humble Nazarene. He urged the young men to be decided and firm in Christian duty and give up all those practices in life which are sinful. Do right on all occasions, lead honorable Christian lives, do the best you can, he said, and you will bring happiness to yourself here and in the world to come, please God and win the blessings of heaven.

Washington's birthday was observed in an appropriate way yesterday morning at the Plymouth Congregational church. At the morning service the Grand Army posts and other military organizations were present and the pastor, Rev. J. S. Ainslie, preached a patriotic sermon. Prof. Miles, of the Taylor university, had charge of the singing. The services were of a very interesting character.

At the Baptist tabernacle yesterday morning Pastor Northrop preached on the subject, "Lazy Sinners," and after the sermon baptized ten persons. In the afternoon he held a special service for women. The audience room was crowded and the exercises were interesting and inspiring. At the close of the afternoon sermon sixteen ladies arose for prayers.

At the morning services of the First Presbyterian church yesterday fourteen persons were received into full membership. Eighteen new members were received last Sunday, and a number of others will join the church next Sunday.

A patriotic service was held last evening at the Simpson M. E. church. There was a large attendance and Rev. J. M. Driver delivered an eloquent and interesting discourse on the theme: "George Washington; His Life and Times."

Interesting services were held yesterday afternoon at both the city and railroad departments of the Young Men's Christian association. At the city department Prof. H. B. Fry, of the Taylor university, delivered the address.

The Free Methodists commenced a series of revival meetings last night, which will continue during the week. At the services yesterday Rev. H. H. Cannon, the district chairman, and other ministers were in attendance.

Evangelist Blaney will continue the revival services at Schroeder hall, corner Broadway and Washington streets, this week, except Friday. His subject this evening will be: "Did the Murdered Man go to Hell and His Murderer to Heaven?" Tuesday, "The Cry of the Troubled Soul;" Wednesday, "What Became of the Crucified Thief;" Thursday, "A Query Answered—Who Baptized John, the Baptist?"

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.

The Birthday Anniversary of Mrs. R. E. Doty Pleasantly Celebrated.

Yesterday was the forty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Mrs. R. E. Doty, of 352 Hanna street, and in honor of the event a surprise party was given the lady Saturday evening, in which about forty persons, friends of the family, participated. They took with them an elegant antique oak rocker, which, in a neat little speech, one of the guests presented to the fair hostess. During the evening a supper consisting of all the good things the season affords was spread, and the scene in the dining room was a merry one. The entire affair was very pleasant, both to hostess and guests, and will always be recalled to memory with pleasure by all concerned. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Northrop, Mr. and Mrs. Philley, Mr. and Mrs. Medsker, Mrs. R. M. Hayes, Mr. J. W. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, M. Cressler and wife, J. Kiplinger and wife, Harry Rogers and wife, Wm. Turner and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, J. H. Franke and wife, John Forbing and wife, Mrs. Warrick and daughter, Mrs McAfee, Mrs. B. C. Skinner, Mrs. H. Gillman, Mrs. M. Mauck, Lillian Matthews, J. W. Minnich and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ashrook, of Ada, Ohio. For the music and recitations much credit is due Misses Abbie Doty, Mamie Lee, Ada Warwick and Lillian Matthews.

Brilliant List of Attractions to Be on the Boards.

Mattie Vickers, who can be remembered here as far back as in the days of the Olympic Theater, will appear at the Temple this evening in her new play, "Edelwiss." Miss Vickers possesses a charming stage presence and is an artist in her line of work.

Next Wednesday's attraction at the Temple will be that favorite and distinguished actress Rhea, in her grand impersonation of "Josephine, Empress of the French." Rhea will bring a company of intelligent and painstaking people, who will fittingly present their respective characters, including William Harris, in one of the greatest portrayals of character known to the stage, in which he has won fame and renown, in his intepretation of Napoleon Bonaparte.

Manager Simonson is pleased to assure the operatic event of the season in the complete production of Alfons Czibulka's masterpiece, "Amorita," Friday evening, Feb. 27, by the famous Pauline Hall, and a company of sixty people. Pauline Hall will appear as Angelo, a sculptor.

The quaint comedy, "Samuel of Posen," will be presented at the Temple next Saturday, Feb. 28, by M. B. Curtis and an excellent company. Mr. Curtis is ably seconded in his efforts to amuse by Miss Albina DeMer, a talented and handsome actress, in her original role of Celeste.

FRACTURED BONES.

James Dalton and Other Unfortunates on the Retired List.

James Dalton, a laborer residing at 58 West Williams street, had a bad fall yesterday while on his own premises and suffered a compound fracture to his leg. He is quite aged and the injury may go hard with him. The injured man is now at the City hospital.

Michael Funk, the cellar foreman of Centlivre's brewery, was injured while repairing a force pump Saturday evening. His leg was fractured in two places between the knee and ankle.

THE Chinese are no more welcome in Java than in many other countries. They introduce the consumption of opium, to the impoverishment of the poorer classes. Chinese money-lending also works untold mischief among the poor, who have to pay such high interest that ruin and misery befall most of them when they once take to borrowing, and this results in an increase of crime.

ENGLISH thieves are using a contrivance looking like an ordinary walking stick, but which is so arranged that by pressing a spring at the handle the ferule will spread apart and form a sort of spring clip that will take hold of anything that is within reach. The thing is called the "Continental lifting stick," and is used to take goods from behind counters when the shopman's back is turned.

JUST why King Kalakaua should burn with desire to visit this country for the purpose of making the acquaintance of our politicians is hard to understand. Unless there be something in it for the politicians his royal nibs will have a hard time getting on in the world. It may be that he is ambitious to fill the vacancy caused by the sudden demise of our estimable friend, the lamented Sitting B.

IN Paris in districts settled with poor families there are to be found nickel-in-the-slot stands, into which a 5-centime piece (equal to our copper cent) can be dropped, which will allow a button to be pressed that will immediately cause a stream of boiling hot water to flow until nine quarts have been delivered, when it stops. This is found to be a great opportunity for economy with poor families—the cost of hot water so obtained being much less than it would be if a fire had to be made to heat it. Water is also thus used by hackmen in cans, to keep the feet of their customers warm in cold weather.

THE day after the tobacco factory in Madrid was burned 10,000 women invaded the palace court yard, and Queen Christine gave orders that a delegation should be allowed to come to her. It was a strange sight, says an eyewitness, to see those cigarieres, with their shawls crossed on their hips and their red foulard handkerchiefs on their heads, mounting the staircase of Charles V.—never before so invaded. They brought with them a little boy about the age of the young king, who, mounted on the shoulders of his mother, lisped out a little speech to the queen. Queen Christine, much touched, took the young fellow on her knee and kissed him several times. The queen promised help, and in the meantime gave $2,000 to the cigarieres.

With the 19th century dawned the era of wonders. It has also proven an era of surprises—for notwithstanding its giant strides toward knowledge, we are told that there are still in some places a few citizens who have not heard of Salvation Oil.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Representative Thiele's bill, requiring cigarette dealers to take out a license costing $200 per year, was called up in the senate Saturday. After a good many more remarks and a little argument, a vote was taken on the minority report of the committee, which was to indefinitely postpone the further consideration of the bill. The minority report was not adopted, but the majority report, which favored the passage of the bill, was, by a small majority.

In the house the regular order of business being bills in second reading, the first under consideration was that of Senator Akin, increasing the salaries of wardens of the state prisons to $2,500. The committee recommended its passage, which was concurred in, and the measure was advanced to its third reading without opposition.

Senator Howard's bill concerning the powers and duties of cities and towns, regulating the manner in which assessments shall be made for street improvement, was reported back by the committee, with certain amendments, which were concurred in. Mr. McCullough offered an amendment, providing that the provisions of this act shall not apply to cities of over 100,000 inhabitants (Indianapolis), which was also agreed to, and the bill went to its third reading.

Mr. Claypool asked permission to introduce a bill, which was acceded to, which, he said, would put several thousand dollars in the state treasury. The act, he said, authorized the sale of certain land, now standing in the name of the state, which had been used as the location of an academy at Fairview, Rush county, which institution had not been in existence for twenty years. The bill was introduced and was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Hench made a motion instructing the judiciary committee to report back, by Monday, his bill prohibiting public officers and members of the legislature from accepting or using railroad passes. Mr. Fowler moved to lay this motion on the table and this prevailed—years, 45; nays, 25. In explaining his vote, Mr. Hench said that if the motion carried it would prevent any legislation on this subject, and a lively discussion followed.

Mr. Oppenheim, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported back the general taxation bill, a very voluminous measure of 262 sections, and the discussion on it consumed the balance of the day's session.

AT a test of steel manufactured at Reading, Pa., the other day a one-inch bar broke at a strain of 233,833 pounds, "being about 20,000 pounds in excess of the highest record authoritatively known." The test was made under the supervision of Government officers.

A CLEVELAND paper says the raising of $550, more or less, in the Michigan State Prison to buy a silver tea set for the warden is an original idea for which the State may expect credit. If we only had the gallows here we should expect to see murderers presenting the hangman with gold watches or diamond pins.

IT is thought that the oldest timber in the world that has been subjected to the use of man is that found in an old temple in Egypt, in connection with stone-work known to be at least 4,000 years old. It was the only wood used in the construction of the temple and is in the form of ties, holding the stones together.

THE stomach of the shark has for many years been supposed to be capable of digesting anything he could swallow, no matter what the substance thereof, but he must now take a back seat. The juice of one jolly pineapple will dissolve ten pounds of tough beef, and dyspeptics and pineapples will now be boon companions.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

I have a cousin who is a printer, says ex-Mayor J. B. Loughran, of North Des Moines, Iowa. Some years ago he was employed in this city where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured him and that was the first I ever knew of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have been strongly in its favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that this remedy is the best in the world. That may be strong language, but that is what I think. For sale by druggists.

LORD TOLLEMACHE, who has just died in London at the age of 82, was known as the best landlord in Great Britain. Although the most uncompromising of tories, he divided his vast estates into small holdings, alloted three acres to each laborer for garden, grazing and, tillage; demanded that a cow and a pig be kept; had his tenants taught butter and cheese making and allowed them time to cultivate their holdings, the results of his liberal policy appearing in a large increase of the value of his property, and the most prosperous and contented tenantry in the United Kingdom.

The Portrait of a Lady

Painted on paper by the pen of such a novelist as Henry James will do very well, but the real portrait of a real lady is a very different affair. Has she pimples on her face, or blotches? Is her complexion sallow? If so, the conscientious artist in this realistic age will have to put them all down. The lady's remedy for her pimples, blotches and sallowness is S.S.S. the great vegetable remedy for the blood. There can be no beauty where there is no health, whereas the most commonplace features are rendered piquant and interesting by a beautiful complexion S.S.S. restores strength and vigor to the system, gives tone to the digestive organs, and cures all nervous disorders. The potency of this wonderful blood medicine is unquestionable, and yet, powerful as it is, it may be taken by the feeblest child and by the most delicate female. It has no rival in the wide field which it covers. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases Mailed Free.

TICKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

At the meeting of the National Association of General Ticket and Passenger Agents held in Chicago last week, action was taken which, when understood, will be highly appreciated by the traveling public and business men. It was the adoption of a uniform system for accounting for prepaid orders. A. J. Smith, secretary of the association, in speaking of this matter to a reporter of the Cleveland Leader, said: "It will lead to the general adoption by the railroad of a plan whereby any person can purchase at any station a ticket from a remote point to that station. It will be like telegraphing money, a financial arrangement that has been found very convenient and has come into general use in late years. By the system of accounting adopted this week, it will be to the interest of every ticket agent to make sales of this kind, because the price of the ticket instead of being sent, with some inconvenience and at no credit to the agent, to the road having the initial point, will be forwarded by the agent to his own superior officer, and the amount will be credited to his own office sales. Under the same order of things any person can purchase a ticket, or more properly an order for a ticket, from any point reached by rail to his own station, and either forward it by mail to the desired passenger, or he can have the ticket furnished to the passenger on notice by wire. The conveniences in many situations in commercial and social life are apparent."

BRIEF MENTION.

George Burger, Pittsburg engineer, is sick.

Supt. O. D. Law went to Pittsburg last night.

No. 5 on the Pittsburg was one hour and twenty minutes late this morning.

Washington's birthday is being observed by our shops to day and items are scarce.

P. J. Cullen, a brakeman on the Fort Wayne road, has returned to work after a visit with his parents at Convoy, Ohio.

James Craig is again at work at Rhinesmith & Simonson's factory. He was off a few days on account of sickness.

Eugene Martin has taken a position as fireman on the Grand Rapids road. He was formerly a caller for the same road.

Adam H. Seabold, a switchman in the Nickel Plate yards, got his right hand badly pinched yesterday morning while coupling cars. Dr. Rosenthal amputated three fingers at the St. Joseph hospital.

Convenient offices have been fitted up at Huntington, Ind., for Superintendent Merrill, he having decided to make that point the headquarters of the Chicago and Erie road so far as transportation is concerned.

The Pittsburg freight office and all the departments in the shops are closed to allow the men to properly observe Washington's birthday. This is the first time in twenty years that this holiday was observed by closing the shops.

Railroad stockholders are getting very tired of the expensive manner in which the officials ride over the lines. It is estimated that the average daily cost of running a private car over the road is $25. Some officials are now traveling in public coaches, and hope in this way to discourage the extravagant use of private cars.

Engineer Thomas Ogier, of the Nickel Plate road, has returned from Hot Springs, Ark., much improved in health.

Mr. George Potter and bride returned to their home in this city. Mr. Potter is assistant civil engineer of the Nickel Plate road.

A Wabash car jumped a frog at the Pittsburg crossing yesterday morning and ditched four freight cars loaded with cotton. No one was hurt, and the track was soon cleared. Conductor Walt Lefford was in charge of the train.

Michael Funk had his right leg fractured in two places Saturday evening while working with a steam pump at the Centlivre brewery. He was taken to his home where the injured limb was dressed by Dr. Schilling. Mr. Funk is cellar foreman at the brewery.

Michael Moran, one of the conductors who resigned from the G. R. and I. last summer, is now running a freight train on the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas. James A. Smith, who also resigned from the Grand Rapids and Indiana last summer, is running one of the Chicago and Alton's handsome vestibule passenger trains between Chicago and St. Louis.

The painters and the bosses at Indianapolis are at war. The painters demand an increase of wages from thirty to thirty-two and one-half cents per hour, with eight hours to constitute a day's work. The increase was refused, and hence the trouble. The master painters will submit a compromise proposition to the journeymen on the 25th inst., which will probably be accepted.

E. B. White, of this city, was married at Bluffton last week. The Bluffton Bugle says: "Another Bluffton belle is "taken." Miss Annie C. Fitch the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fitch, was married at half past ten this morning to Ela Burt White, a popular and handsome young machinist of Fort Wayne. The interesting ceremony took place at the bride's home, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, Rev. J. E. Weir officiating. Mr. and Mrs. White departed on the 10:50 train for their future home at Fort Wayne. The bride has many friends among Bluffton young people who extend best wishes for their future happiness." Mr. White is a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, and while his engagement to Miss Fitch was well known, the wedding was not expected to take place for some time. The bride and groom have the best wishes of the SENTINEL.

CALIFORNIA EXCURSIONS,

Combining Comfort, Economy and Respectability.

The Santa Fe route, realizing the fact that there is a demand for a service to California and the Pacific Coast which will secure to the traveler even a greater degree of comfort than is given on the regular trains, has organized a series of special Santa Fe route excursions on regular dates between Chicago, Kansas City and all California points.

The most successful and satisfactory low rate excursions ever run to California have been over the Santa Fe route, and this company, with its own line from Chicago to California, smooth track and fine equipment will make these excursion smore popular and successful than ever.

The excursions leave Chicago every Thursday at 7:50 p m. from the Dearborn station of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and leave Kansas City every Friday at 10.45 a. m. and 11 a. m. They are personally conducted by salaried excursion agents of the Santa Fe route, who accompany the parties to destination, and give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort.

These cars are furnished with all necessary articles of comfort and convenience, as described elsewhere herein. A colored porter is assigned to each car, under the direction of the regular Pullman conductor. These arrangements give to the passenger every attention obtainable on first-class transportation.

Parties joining the excursions should write to H. A. Bonn, passenger agent, Rialto building, Chicago, who will give necessary information and assistance to passengers regarding tickets, baggage, location in sleeper, etc. Ticket office 212 Clark street, Chicago, corner of Adams street

Texas farmers have an enormous home market as well as

Twelve Thousand Miles of Railroad and Ocean Outlet for their surplus crop. Here farmers are able to work out of doors every day in the year, and stock run on grass from January to January. Many farmers in Kansas and in the north west are selling whatever equity they have in their farms, buying the cheap lands of Texas. And in many instances the clearing the price of the land from the first years crops. The latest census shows that few farmers in Texas have their farms mortgaged. The Texas school fund is the largest of any commonwealth in the world, aggregating in cash and lands some sixty millions of dollars. State taxes are ten cents on the hundred dollars

The scene of the high waters at the confluence of the St. Marys, St. Joseph and Maumee rivers is an unusual one, and the grand sight of rushing waters was witnessed yesterday and to day by many people. The already swollen waters raised eleven inches yesterday at noon and the same hour to day. There is a probability that the river will recede considerably during the night. The reunion flats and part of Boltes & Romy's addition, are under water, but little damage has been reported. The water is higher than it has been since the flood of four years ago. Lakeside is safe, the dyke proving a good protection.

The embalmed baby died at the World's museum Saturday afternoon, shortly after THE SENTINEL went to press. It was a wonderful curiosity. The baby was born at Wheatland, Ind., June 6, 1890, and was the child of L. C. Eastland and wife. The parents travelled with it, and already it had been exhibited in many of the principal cities of the United States. The baby had been here just two weeks, and two week's engagement had been entered into for Philadelphia, Pa. Buffalo N. Y. and Toronto Can., but of course these are now canceled. The remains were taken Saturday evening to Kouts ter, this state, where the interment took place to-day. Funeral Director Reiser, who embalmed the body, said it was the only instance where he injected chemicals arterially into an infant. The experiment was successful.

PLATE GLASS INSURANCE.

A New Local Company is to be Organized in This City.

To-night a new company will be organized in this city to place plate glass insurance. It will be known either as the "Fort Wayne" or the "Indiana" plate glass accident insurance company, and its capital will be represented by gentlemen whose wealth will aggregate more than one-quarter million of dollars. The stockholders will be Murray Hartnett, John Mohr, jr., Louis Fox, J. W. White and J. A. M. Storm. A canvass has elicited a ready response from owners of buildings where plate glass is used, and the new enterprise is a sure go. The headquarters will be in this city, with perhaps Mr. Hartnett as manager, in which case the real estate and other interests of the latter gentleman will in no way be interfered with.

YET AN UNCERTAINTY.

Fort Wayne May go Into the Michigan and Indiana League.

The Indiana State Base Ball league is yet an uncertainty. March 3 is the day when its destiny will be decided, and if at that time the support of the several Indiana base ball towns is not satisfactorily given, Fort Wayne will not waste any of its valuable time, but will go right ahead with other negotiations. To day Manager Meyer received a letter from Al. Buckenberger, who last year managed the Columbus club in the American association. He seeks the co-operation of Fort Wayne to organize the Michigan and Indiana league, to consist of Saginaw, Bay City, Jackson, Detroit, Fort Wayne, Elkhart and South Bend. Mr. Meyer regards the matter in a favorable light. Should the state league fizzle, Mr. Buckenberger's suggestion will be more earnestly considered.

OVERCOME WITH COAL GAS.

Mrs. W. H. Quick and Miss Jackson Have a Close Call.

At an early hour this morning Dr. J. J. Ogle and Dr. E. J. McOscar were summoned to the residence of W. H. Quick, on Euclid avenue, near the east yards, where Mrs. Quick and her baby and a Miss Jackson were in a state of unconsciousness from the effects of asphyxiation. Their case was extremely critical and it seemed that their resuscitation could only be accomplished through the grace of Providence. The patients were at last brought out of their dangerous condition and are now in a fair way to recover.

The circumstances are related as follows: At an early hour this morning Mr. Quick, who is a night switchman at the east yards, returned home to find that his wife had not risen as usual. Persistent knocking availed not, so he went to the rear of the house and kicked in the kitchen door, thus effecting an entrance. He was almost overcome by the stifling atmosphere, which was impregnated with the poisonous gas from a defective coal stove. He groped his way to the windows and soon permitted the gas to escape. Hastening to his wife's bedroom he discovered herself and babe unconscious, and in the same room was Miss Jackson, a young lady residing in the neighborhood, who had on several occasions remained over night with Mrs. Quick. The patients remained unconscious until a considerable time after medical attendance was at hand and their case was at first regarded as fatal. Strange to say the infant fared the best of the victims, probably because it had slept in its mother's arms and had not inhaled so much of the gas.

MORE BUILDING AND LOAN.

A Local Branch of the People's Association, of Minneapolis.

For some days past Mr. Fenstomacher, representative of the People's Building and Loan association, Minneapolis, Minn., has been in the city, and, assisted by T. E. Covington, the florist, has been soliciting for a new branch to be located in this city. The work has been far enough accomplished, as they claim, to justify an organization and such will be effected early this week. It is claimed that this association has an authorized capital of $50,000,000, with shares at $100 each.

NOT DEAD.

A Painful Report of Grace Howell is Found to be False.

A morning paper is badly in error by making the grievous announcement of the death of Miss Grace Howell, of Miner street, this city, said to have occurred at Adrian, Mich. The facts of the case are that the young lady suffered from congestion of the brain here, and recovering slightly, she went to Adrian to visit and recuperate. She did not suffer a fatal relapse as stated but is at this writing convalescent. Miss Howell is a member of the Christian church and has many friends who will be glad to her of her regained health. The young lady is the daughter of Charles A. Howell, of 39 Miner street, who is a machinist and a respectable man. He is much disturbed at the report, the authority of which he lays at the feet of some meddling person with malicious intent, who no doubt misrepresented the case to a newspaper reporter.

MANY BAPTISTS

Will Be in the City Next Week to Attend a Missionary Meeting.

A meeting of great importance will be held in the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, March 3, at the Baptist church. It is the foreign missionary rally meeting of all the Baptist societies in northern Indiana. The following distinguished ministers will be present and participate in the exercises: Rev. Drs. Murdock and McKenzie, of Boston; Dr. Henson, of Chicago; Dr. Taylor, of Indianapolis; Dr. Cavins, of Peru, and Rev. Dr. Stinson, of Terre Haute. All the Baptist clergymen and leading laymen in the northern part of the state will be in attendance and the meeting will be of great interest.

This meeting is an important one and our Baptist citizens will make it a success. A similar meeting will be held on Monday, March 2, at Indianapolis, for the clergymen and laymen of the southern part of the state.

NAMING THE BABY.

How a Perplexing Question Was Settled by Friends of the Parents.

Saturday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. Conover sat in their cozy home, on University street, discussing the question. "What name shall we give the baby?" the front door swung violently open and some twenty-five ladies and gentlemen marched into the room. The object of the intruders was two fold. To name the little one, who had been permitted to live all these two long months with no name other than "Baby," and to commemorate the wedding of the happy papa and mamma, which important event transpired nineteen years ago. The guests meant business and were not in the least backward about assuming temporary control of the Conover household. They presented the baby with a handsome clock and straightway set about to name her. Slips of paper bearing some fifty names, were placed in a hat and from these the father and mother were to select one for their little girl. After looking over the list they decided that Luella was the most pleasing to both, and the baby was so named. Then followed refreshments, music and social games and conversation, until the family clock warned the guests that further festivities would end in Sabbath desecration. Hastily bidding the host and hostess good-night and wishing them many returns of their wedding anniversary, the happy throng departed for their homes.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED.

The Nova Scotia Mine Disaster More Appalling Than at First Reported —Scenes of the Catastrophe.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 23.—A fearful explosion occurred in the Spring Hills coal mines Saturday night. To-day the effects of the disaster are felt more acutely. Up to this hour, 10 a. m., 117 dead bodies have been removed from the mine and the work of rescue is still going on.

To several families the affliction is very great. Reid Carter and his two sons, Willard and Clarence, are all dead. Three sons of the Carmichael family are dead—John, Andrew and William. Jesse Armishaw went down No. 3 slope yesterday and found his three sons, Jesse and Herbert and John Bainbridge, an adopted son, all lying together. The sight sickened and unnerved him so that he had to return to the surface without them. He was frantic with grief. Two sons of Robert McVey, under fourteen, were laid out side by side. Hugh Bent loses two boys, Andrew and Alexander. These sorrowful households are only a few of the large number from which the bread-winners have been snatched. To-day one meets every where women and children weeping piteously. During the night people were astir and little knots of men eagerly discussed the situation. A special train arrived from Westville and other mining centers in Pictou county, with relatives of the dead and others. A steady stream of curious people has been pouring into the town from all quarters, and visitors are numerous.

Some of the bodies taken out were fearfully mutilated. Those of the dead who were beyond recognition were identified by their clothes, or marks on their bodies. A carpenter shop has been temporarily converted into a dead-house, to which all the corpses are taken, and then washed and prepared for their coffins. It is a most gruesome sight. The shop is continually crowded with sorrowing relatives looking for their dead. Clergymen of different denominations are doing what they can for the grief-stricken. The appalling enormity of the accident has stunned the people, and they are just beginning to realize the extent of the dreadful calamity. The injured are progressing most favorably, and are being tenderly cared for.

When the explosion took place, doctors were telegraphed for to other places and appeared on the scene as soon as they could reach town by rail. Eleven miners were seriously injured. Others who were overcome by the damp were resuscitated and their names cannot be ascertained. They are all right now. A boy named Carter, who was carried out severely injured, was struck by some flying missile, from the effects of which injury he died at about midnight. Joshua McNail was also struck by something above the eye. He died this morning. With these exceptions the injured are doing well. The scene of the explosion was in the immediate vicinity of Nos. 6 and 7 balances, in the east slope. There the greatest number of the deaths occurred. This particular part of the mine was visited by Deputy Inspector of Mines Madden on Friday forenoon. Madden's statement declares that he found in two places fire-damp registering from 1 to 1 1-5 per cent.

MONTREAL, Feb. 23.—Senator George Drummond, of this city, is one of the directors of the Spring Hill mines. He showed an official report of the manager of the mine yesterday which tells a remarkable story. It is dated February 16 and in it Underground Superintendent Swift says that much uneasiness has been caused among the men by "Old Mrs. Coo," known in the neighborhood as the "Pictou Prophetess," foretelling an explosion which was to take place in Spring Hill mine. In consequence of the old woman's story and the consequent uneasiness of the men, a committee of miners themselves was appointed by the company, and, with Manager Cowans at their head, they began an examination of the mines on February 16. The west mine was examined and on Tuesday last the north mine was gone through and the most complete examination made of all seams, drifts, slopes and leadings. Everything was found in good shape with absolutely no apparent presence of danger. The fears of the miners caused by "Mother Coo," were dispelled by the perfect condition of the mines, except among a very few, who stoutly maintained that the old woman never prophesied wrong. The awful fulfillment of her prophecy came Saturday.

VICTIMS TO THE FLOOD.

A Whole Family Drowned by the Rising Waters.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 22.—The heavy rains of the past week up the Missouri river has resulted in a casualty which caused the death of three and possibly five persons. The house of Frederick Warner, a fireman, stood on the edge of the river, about four miles below this city. The rain, combined with the rising water, so undermined it last night that it was precipitated into the river with the whole family, consisting of Warner, his wife and three children. The cries of the people attracted the attention of some neighbors and they hastened to the rescue, but could be of no assistance. The bodies of Mrs. Warner and two of the children were recovered about a mile down stream, but Warner and the youngest child were not found, and it is supposed that they were swept further down and both drowned.

ALLEN G. THURMAN.

The Old Roman Approves Foster's Appointment.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 23.—Judge Allen G. Thurman last night, speaking of ex-Governor Foster for secretary of the treasury, said: "Politically Foster is a good mixer and shrewd politician. I have known him for a long time and do not see why his nomination should not give satisfaction. He has been in the banking business for a long time, and as a business man has been very successful in all his enterprises. He is credited with being cool and level-headed, and I have no doubt will successfully fill the position. His selection will undoubtedly prove quite as satisfactory as any that could have been made, and he has to a remarkable degree the confidence of the business interests of the country." The democratic members of the legislature in this city speak favorably of Foster and say that, as a republican had to be chosen, the selection was eminently satisfactory to all Buckeye democrats. The press of the country, without exception, cordially indorses the appointment.

THE PIGEERY QUESTION

Threatens to Cause Trouble Between the United States and Canada.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—A special to the Herald from Ottawa, Ont., says that notice has just been given by the Dominion government that the provision under which American fishermen enjoy considerable privileges in Canadian waters on payment of a tonnage fee expired on December 31st. No intimation is given whether or not it will be revived during the next fishing season. Parliament will not meet for nearly two months after the season has opened, and in case the former arrangement is not in force it will cause many unpleasantnesses on the Atlantic coast. This would be particularly unfortunate at this juncture, and the hope is freely expressed that the government will put it again in force in time for the opening of the spring operations.

Six Men Blade Him Out.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 23.—Herman Berry, aged 73 years, who was at one time a wealthy business man of Chicago, was arrested yesterday morning, on complaint of his wife, Clarissa Berry, of Chicago, who charges him with living unlawfully with Elizabeth O'Conner. Mrs. Berry has had a long hunt for her husband, and succeeded in locating him here by mere accident. Berry admits that he has lived with Mrs. O'Conner for twenty-one years, and in all that time his wife has been sending for him. Mrs. Berry and her daughter arrived here from Chicago on Saturday, and the police soon succeeded in locating the pair.

Kansas Signs with Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 23. — The Cleveland league ball club to-day signed Pitcher Knauss, who was under contract to play for Columbus next season. Knauss' association contract provided that he was to play under the rules and provisions of the national agreement, and lawyers who examined the document pronounced it null and void after the association ceased to be a party to the national agreement. Knauss was one of the association's best pitchers.

Looking for an Assistant Treasurer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The president will in all probability send in the name of Charles E. Coon, as assistant secretary. This statement is made upon authority that cannot be questioned and the appointment is only held until after the senates action on Mr. Foster's name. Neither Mr. Foster nor Mr. Coon would say anything about the matter when seen last night.

Chinese Dying by Hundreds.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 23.—One of the contractors on the Tehuantepec Isthmus railroad in Mexico, arrived here yesterday. He reports that fully twenty per cent. of the several hundred Chinese laborers who were imported to work on the road have died, not being able to withstand the change of climate.

Colored Ministers at War.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 23.—The Revs. Joseph Gregg and John Williams, both colored, became involved in a quarrel last night, at the corner of St. Louis and Moffitt avennes, and Williams threw a rock at Gregg, striking him on the head. The injury will probably prove fatal. Williams was arrested.

THE FLOODS.

The Damage by the Overflow of the Ohio River Said to Exceed $4,000,000—Other River News Elsewhere.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 23.—The worst of the flood is now over. The Ohio has fallen two feet and by to night shall have receded from the business and factory sections of the city. Riverside is still inundated, and but few families will be able to return to their homes for two weeks. The sufferers are being cared for. The loss to the railroads is very great. All of them are badly crippled, and in some cases it will take several weeks' work to repair the damage. No mails have left Marietta for five days. The postoffice was flooded half-way to the top of the letter boxes, and the newspaper offices had four feet of water in them. In the Ohio valley not less than 15,000 men have been thrown out of employment. This will entail great suffering. A close observer who has passed through the inundated district estimates the loss at $4,000,000. Only two cases of drowning are reported: Wm. Powell, who lived near Beawood, and Harry Westgate, whose home was at Torch, on the Ohio side of the river. News from Pocahontas county says that many people in the upper part of that county are in a starving condition. It was feared last night that the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers will overflow again and that another flood as great as that of last week will visit this city. Both rivers are rising rapidly.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Two Diplomats Uneasy Over Domestic Affairs—Other News.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Prince Henry, of Benss, the German ambassador at Vienna, will probably be transferred as governor of Alsace-Lorraine. The prince, who has the regard of the kaiser on account of his intimate association with the first Emperor William, has been made somewhat obnoxious at Vienna by the arrogant conduct of his wife, the Princess Marie, who is about twenty-five years younger than himself, and does as she pleases with her venerable husband. The kaiser, it is stated, wishes to be represented at Vienna by a younger man, in accordance with the policy he has of late been following both in the civil and military service.

Another diplomat in trouble about his wife is Sir Edwin Malet, the British ambassador to Berlin. Sir Edwin is married to the beautiful Lady Ermyntrude Sackville, daughter of the late Duke of Bedford. The circumstances of her father's death by his own hand have made a deep impression on Lady Malet. Heretofore she has been one of the brightest ornaments of the Berlin court and one of the acknowledged leaders of society. She is now afraid to go back to Berlin for fear that her father's sad end and the notoriety connected therewith will make her an object of vulgar curiosity. The British government has no desire to dispense with Sir Edwin's services and he wishes to continue his brilliant diplomatic career, consequently his wife's attitude puts him in a painful position.

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—A mixed reception was accorded Messrs. Healy and Kenny when they reached Carrick-on-Shannon Saturday night. During yesterday Parnellites arrived in large numbers and took possession of the platform erected for the use of the speakers. Priests busied themselves to pacify the people, but their attempts proved futile. As soon as the procession composed of McCarthyites arrived on the scene they were met by a volley of stones and other missiles. Forty policemen found themselves unable to cope with the opposing factions. Mr. Healy thought it advisable to adjourn the meeting to a chapel, where he said the opponents were unable to meet them in a fair argument and therefore resorted to violence. He asked: "If Mr. Parnell did not yield to the Irish majority in the English parliament, what would he do in the Irish parliament?" His query was met with a tremendous amount of hooting and groaning from the Parnellites who had gathered outside of the chapel. The noise, however, was not sufficient to drown the voices of the speakers. Continuing, Mr. Healy asked "why Mr. Parnell did not resign his seat and found a new party? Mr. Parnell told them to beware of the Saxon smile. Why did not he beware of it himself, and also of Mrs. O'Shea's smiles?" Mr. Healy concluded by saying that Mr. Dillon was looked favorably upon as leader at the Boulogne conference, and that they were willing to accept him as such, but Mr. Parnell had another proposition to make with reference to representation at Westminster. After the general election the brotherhood of the two countries would be restored. Other speakers addressed the meeting after Mr. Healy had stepped down. Several persons received scalp wounds and were otherwise bruised as the result.

Stopping a Prize Fight.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 23.—During the progress of a prize fight between "Val" Daly, of Edwardsville, and Jas. Farrell, of Plymouth, at Edwardsville last night, two constables jumped into the ring and tried to seize the men. The crowd of onlookers set up a yell and began to close in, with threats of violence. The officers drew their revolvers and soon put the crowd to flight. The two principals were also got out of the way without being arrested.

BURNED TO THE GROUND.

Kansas City Visited by a Disastrous Fire.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 23.—A great fire visited the central part of the city last night and left half a block of blackened walls on Main and Delaware streets, south of Seventh street. The loss was about $200,000. The principal losses were sustained by A. Holland & Sons, proprietors of the Midland shoe store, 702 Main street; Julius Liebenladler, proprietors of a wholesale millinery store over 707 Main street; the Wells-Fargo Express company, 705 Main street; Oppheimer & Co., wholesale jewelers, 705 Main street; Sloss millinery store, 703 Main street, and the owners of the buildings, F. S. Brown and J. W. Egelhoff. All the buildings ran from street to street. On account of the narrowness of Seventh street and the bad condition of Delaware street, where a new building is being erected, the fire department experienced great trouble. The water could not be thrown from Seventh street with sufficient force to break the windows where the flames were raging on the top story. Several persons were sleeping in the building and were barely aroused in time to escape. Three firemen were buried by a falling wall, but managed to crawl out bruised and bleeding, but not seriously injured. The fire is thought to have been caused by a gas explosion. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

HOUNDED DOWN.

The Murderous Mexican Band Cornered at Last.

EATON, N. M., Feb. 23.—A message was received yesterday afternoon from Maxwell City calling for more men and stating that the Mexicans who murdered United States Marshal Seth V. Russell Saturday afternoon, had been run down by the blood hounds and about forty of them were in an adobe house on the Vallejo Hills surrounded by a posse, but owing to their strong position it was impossible to take them without a bloody battle. As there is no doubt the Mexicans will make a savage fight before surrendering a large number of citizens from Eaton and vicinity, armed with Winchesters, started for the seat of war late yesterday evening and are determined to either capture or exterminate the entire band.

THEATRE BURNED.

People's Theatre at Evansville, Ind., Destroyed.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 23.—Fire at 5:45 this morning totally destroyed the People's Theater and badly damaged the Journal newspaper office. The total loss will probably reach $100,000. Insurance will aggregate about $60,000.

Town Consumed by Fire.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Feb. 23.—East Elkfort, a village of 400 inhabitants in Clayton county, was swept by a disastrous fire yesterday. The fire started at noon in Schrupt's general store, which was burned to the ground, together with the postoffice, the German hotel, Flaherty's saloon, two other store buildings and three dwellings. The total loss is about $20,000 and the insurance half that amount.

Hanged to Trees.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Feb. 23.—Wesley Lewis and Henry Jackson were lynched by a mob, on Saturday night, at Dent's Swamp, near this city. They had been tried in the morning at Sterling for the murder of C. Jordan, of that place, and were found guilty. They were on their way to this city, in charge of a posse, when a mob surrounded them and hanged them in the woods.

Run Down by a Train.

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—John Coakely and Michael McGrath, while driving across the Massachusetts Central railroad on an unused road at Tower Hill, near the village of Wayland, yesterday afternoon, were struck by the train which leaves Boston shortly before 6 o'clock. The carriage was smashed and both men were killed almost instantly, their bodies were badly mutilated.

Found Dead in a Bath Room.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 23.—J. O. Reynolds, for many years general agent of the Dupont Powder company in this state, a highly respected business man of this city, was found shot through the head in his bath room yesterday forenoon. From the circumstances it is a matter of doubt whether the shooting was accidental or done with suicidal intent.

Accidental Shooting.

HONORS TO A HERO.

Tribute Paid by the Citizens of Fort Wayne to the Dead General William T. Sherman.

The citizens of Fort Wayne added their tribute to the memory of General William Tecumseh Sherman yesterday, by impressive memorial services held at both the Masonic Temple and the English Lutheran church, and everywhere throughout the city were evidences seen of the deep respect for the memory of the dead hero of "Sherman's March to the Sea." No man was more beloved and respected; no man had had a more brilliant career; achieved more successes, or was held in more esteem by the entire people of the United States, than was General Sherman, and fitting was it, indeed, that Fort Wayne should, with the nation at large—north and south—join in doing honor to his memory. General Sherman is dead, but he will live in history for centuries to come, as next to Grant, the central figure of the war of the rebellion.

The day for the observance of the memorial exercises in this city was all that could be desired. It was bright and clear and the sunshine made the weather comfortable to the thousands who crowded the streets to witness the parade. Everybody seemed to be out and when the procession moved down Calhoun street to the Masonic Temple, the sidewalks on either side of the street were one mass of humanity. The procession had formed on Calhoun street near Wayne and marched west on Wayne to Broadway, south on Broadway to Jefferson, east on Jefferson to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Washington, east on Washington to Clinton, and north on Clinton to the Masonic Temple. When the head of the procession reached the Temple, the first division halted and opened ranks and the second division passed between and entered the Temple and took seats in the parquet, which had been reserved for them. The immense amphitheater was soon crowded both below and in the gallery and those who could not gain admittance went to the English Lutheran church, just across the street, where similar services were held.

At the Masonic Temple Mayor Harding presided and made an appropriate speech in opening the meeting. The city band then played a dirge and Rev. S. Wagenhals led in prayer.

The resolutions formulated by the committee were read by Judge Allen Zollars. "The fact," he said, "that General Sherman was so well know has induced the committee to make these resolutions general, and to avoid length or elaboration."

Resolved, By the soldiers and citizens here assembled, that by the death of General William T. Sherman, the last of the most distinguished Union generals in the late war, the country has suffered, who, to human knowledge, seems to be an irreparable loss.

To the soldiers, whether high or low in rank, both in the field and since the peace, he was, and has been, the most companionable of comrades, the warmest, most interested and active of friends.

To the people and country at large, his services as one of the greatest leaders of the armies, and as general-in-chief after the resignation of General Grant, were beyond estimation in value.

Resolved, That in his work, character and life, there is a marked illustration of the highest type of American soldiership, manhood and citizenship. Sooner, and more clearly than anyone else, he foresaw the magnitude of the coming struggle, and the necessity for a speedy and ample preparation. In the brilliancy of some of his conceptions of movements, and the ability, skill and success with which he executed them, there are but few parallels in history.

Brave, impetuous and implacable in war, he was at once generous and magnanimous when the sword of the enemy was surrendered.

Without excesses in anything, temperate in all things, warm and generous in thought and action, frugal, clean, honest and moral, his life should be an inspiration to the young men of the nation in the building up of real manhood.

In his pride of country, earnestness of loyalty and patriotism, he was the typical American. In his life he illustrated what we have always been proud to assert—that here, a man may be first in war and first in peace; that here, the most intelligent and courageous soldiery in the world have, and will retire from the field when the battles are over to become, in common with their fellow-countrymen, the most intelligent, patriotic, peace-loving and law-abiding citizens.

Resolved, That we may with propriety upon this day associate t e names of Washington and Sherman; the one loved and venerated as one of the chief builders, and the other as one of the chief saviors of the nation.

Without monuments of brass or stone, their names will live and their memories be cherished, so long as liberty shall exist or be sought for by mankind.

Resolved, That we extend to the stricken family, our most sincere sympathy.

ALLEN ZOLLARS,
JAMES E GRAHAM,
PHIL DICKINSON,
J. B WHITE,
T. W. BLAIR.

Mrs. R. Stoadman McCann, of Taylor university, then delivered in a clear, distinct voice, and a charming way, an appropriate poem, and the Sons of Veterans gave a vocal selection. This was followed by an address delivered by Rev. A. K. Zartman. The study of General Sherman's whole life, the speaker said, would be a subject of profound and delightful research. Following him through his early training, his preparatory schooling for his after career, step by step, we see him rise until we see him finally taking the place for which Providence was fitting him. The speaker drew a contrast between Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, ascribing to the former pertinacity, always meeting and fighting the enemy with a caution that never left his engagements in doubt, or his success to chance. Sheridan was the dashing hero whose enterprise had never been excelled, and whose brilliancy and alertness had no superior in the wars of mankind. Sherman was the great scientific warrior, the great tactician. He was a scholarly soldier, and, in the breadth of his military views and genius, was a fitting man to conclude the grand triumvirate of warriors.

The choir then sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and Prof. N. R. Leonard, editor of the Gazette, delivered an able and interesting address on the life and character of the dead soldier hero. Rev. G. N. Eldridge then delivered an able and patriotic address, the audience sang "America," and the meeting closed with benediction by Rev. Wagenhals.

The exercises at the English Lutheran church were of an equally impressive and interesting character. Hon. F. P. Randall, the old war mayor of Fort Wayne, presided. Rev. N. D. Shackford delivered the opening prayer, Hon. J. W. Hayden read the resolutions and the English Lutheran choir did the singing. The addresses, able and patriotic ones, were delivered by Judge R. S. Taylor and Rev. J. S. Ainslie. Mrs. R. Steadman McCann gave a recitation, and after the singing of "America" the audience was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Shackelford.

RAIDING THE DENS.

Disreputable Women Brought Before Justice Ryan—Court News.

The constable in Justice Ryan's court is out on a hunt for women of disreputable character this afternoon and some time this evening several of them will be arraigned before his honor. This morning Herbert Fitch filed affidavits charging Matt Clark, Mary Smith, Jennie Jones, Maude Middleton, Julia Brown, Ella Martin and Myers with frequenting a house of ill fame at No. 5 DeGroff street. The "strumpets" were up before Mayor Harding about a week ago and fined. They ought to be arrested and rearrested and fined heavily every time and if this does not stop their business, let them be sent to jail. The officers should take some means of driving these miserable women out of the city.

Justice Tenney has issued warrants for the arrest of five boys for jumping on railroad trains; also a warrant for arrest in another criminal case.

Eva Jones secured a situation some weeks ago with Mr. and Mrs. Hadley in the Hand and Tab laundry, at a guaranteed salary of $2 a week, and $3 a week if she earned that much. She was paid at the rate of $3 a week, and sued to-day in Justice Franch's court for a balance of $5.50. She secured a judgement of fifty cents.

The following real estate transfers have been recorded: Kate Schrader to Carrie Schrader, 162 Fletcher's, $3.78; Joseph H. Wilder to Bernard S. O'Connor, lot 3 and east 15 feet east of 4 Ewing's, $10,000; Clim M. Dudenhaper to George P. Dudenhaper and Comparet's first, $3,500; same to Henry Scherer, 1 and 2 College, $4,100; J. Austin to Daniel S. Austin and Green's subdivision, $1,000

In the circuit court this afternoon Judge O'Rourke decided the case of Emma Rupple vs. Mattie Stapleford by giving the custody of a child to the former, its mother.

SIGNAL SERVICE.

Col. Ceil Higgins, the postmaster and custodian of the government building, whose duty it is to have the weather signals hoisted over the post office, has not given exactly the sort of weather that obtains the best of satisfaction among the critical class of people. The colonel innocently declares that he has been most fastidious in his orders, but the prognostications, as a rule, cometh not; or, if they do, they are not very often fulfilled. The weather service in Fort Wayne has assuredly been unreliable. The public will be glad to hear that it is about to be remedied by the war department. Heretofore this city has been simply a weather reporting station—the reports being sent here from Chicago.

It is learned on authority to-day that the war department has assigned to this city Lieutenant John P. Finley, of the signal service corps, who for a long time past, has been in charge of the signal station at San Francisco. Lieutenant Finley has acquired by his efficient service the title of "Tornado Expert." If the plans for the station in this city are carried out Fort Wayne will be made a regular signal station, which is more or less an observatory fitted up with all the instruments and appliances for registering the velocity of the wind, direction of the wind, temperature, atmospheric conditions and every detail for ascertaining the condition of the weather. This will put this city on a par with Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit and other large cities and this will be the only signal station in Indiana. The reports thus derived by the signal officer are telegraphed to Washington, where the reports of all observatories in the country are compiled and the weather indications for the succeeding twelve hours in every state in the union are telegraphed out. The station will be located at the highest obtainable eminence.

SAYS THE TRIBUNE.

The Chicago Tribune has the following: "Lieutenant John P. Finley, the 'tornado expert,' lately in charge of the signal service work at San Francisco, Cal., has been assigned to take charge at Fort Wayne, Ind."

RAILROAD BUSINESS LIGHT.

The Pennsylvania Company Have a Dearth of Freight—The Situation.

Our predictions a week ago, so far as the Pittsburg shops are concerned, were not verified. Then we stated that work was plenty in most of the departments and the men were working full time. This was on Monday. Tuesday morning the shops were running on the eight hour system. This was not because of lack of work, but rather on account of the freight business, the source from whence the company derives its revenue, dwindling down to such meagre proportions that retrenchment seemed to the officials an absolute necessity. Not only were the men in the shops placed on short hours, but some freight trains were temporarily taken off and their crews retired. No grain of any consequence is moving and coal and coke shipments are very light. The latter condition the officials claim is due to strikes of the miners and coke workers in the Pennsylvania coke fields. An employe of the road stated to our reporter this morning that he had not, in his twenty years service, seen the freight business of the line so light as it has been the past two weeks. Better times are doubtless coming soon. The difficulty between the employes and the company remains unsettled. The committee remains at Pittsburg to try and effect a settlement or get a definite answer. Sup. G. D. Law left for Pittsburg this morning on business, as it is believed, relating to the present state of affairs.

WRECK ON THE B. & O.

A Passenger Train Crashed Into by Another.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 23.—At 9:30 this morning the east bound express on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad ran into the rear coach of a passenger train at Remington station. Conductor Gallagher was badly hurt and four passengers more or less injured.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The house to-day, after routine business, went into committee of the whole on the deficiency appropriation bill.

The house committee on census met to day and adopted the report of the sub-committee having charge of Representative Flower's resolution, providing for the recount of the population of New York City.

The report of the sub-committee is adverse and was adopted by the full committee, only one member, Mr. Washington, of Tennessee, voting against it. There were several democrats absent.

An umbrella belonging to Rabbi Guttmacher caught fire in the check room at the Wayne hotel, and the smoke issuing from that room caused a little consternation. A lighted cigar caused the trouble.

ALBION claims more pretty girls in proportion to population than any other town in the state. It's a mistake. Fort Wayne heads the list by a big majority.

A BILL is introduced in the Michigan legislature providing for the building of a reform home for inebriates. Funds for its support are to be taken from the liquor tax collected in each county.

SOME weeks since the various Catholic churches in this city took collections for the aid of suffering members of that church in Ireland. About $3,700 was raised and this sum was sent to the various parishes in the Emerald isle. Letters have been received from Ireland acknowledging the receipt of the money.

MR. CLEVELAND has been interviewed in relation to the statement made by the Washington Post to the effect that he had definitely decided not to come before the people as a presidential candidate in 1892. With a delicate blending of humor and sarcasm Mr. Cleveland said: "It is entirely untrue so far as I am acquainted with any of the facts in connection with it. I believe it to be a mere sensation."

TWO HUNDRED members of the Ex-Confederate association of Missouri, in their old war uniforms, trimmed with crape in mourning for their conqueror's death, was not the least touching spectacle in General Sherman's funeral cortege at St. Louis last Saturday. The fears of those who wore the blue and those who wore the gray fell together, and it was a touching and impressive lesson. They realized that the war is over and joined each other in this solemn and last tribute to the dead. Were it not for the waving of the "bloody shirt" by those who did not fight on either side, the animosities engendered by the war of the rebellion would have long since been buried.

THE appointment of ex-Gov. Charles Foster, of Ohio, as secretary of the treasury is one of the best that the president could have made. He is a man of strong personal worth, large experience as a successful business man, and well acquainted with public affairs. It is now recalled to his credit that he of all the republican leaders during the reconstruction period was the first to break away from the party program of bayonet rule in the south. Mr. Foster has had business sense enough to increase the $100,000 left him by his father to a fortune estimated to amount to $5,000,000. When asked at New York yesterday for his views on the financial question he said: "I am in accord with the president and his party, and my policy will be the same as Mr. Windom's, as far as I can see now. I am in accord further with the president and his party to increase the trade of the country through reciprocity treaties. I am a firm protectionist and a strong advocate of the restoration of our foreign shipping interests."

THERE have been in circulation for the last three or four days painful rumors as to the estate of Secretary Windom. One is that his family has been left in poverty. It is true that Mr. Windom died a comparatively poor man, but he has left some estate, the income of which, although small, will contribute something to the support of the family, if it shall not wholly maintain them. The property is said to be of such a character that it may materially increase within the next few years. At present, however, the income is said not to be more than sufficient to actually pay the rent of the house in which the secretary lived at the time he died. Upon this house he had an option to purchase at the end of three years only one of which has expired. It is understood that he has left to his family an income not much over $3,000 annually. He has one insurance policy of $5,000 which has been running so long that he has paid to the company more than the face value, it is said, and also one for $2,000. The rest of his estate is in the west, and a considerable portion of it is unproductive.

Interesting Services Held at Different Churches.

Chancellor J. F. Lang preached the sermon at the Cathedral yesterday morning, and the immense edifice was crowded with an interested audience. He addressed himself more particularly to indolent Christians. There are many, he said, who have taken upon themselves the vows of the church who have become indolent and lukewarm in the performance of their Christian duties. They become wavering and undecided. They make good resolutions that are never kept, and allow themselves to drift farther and farther away from duty and from God. The Christian cannot be careless and indolent in his religious duties and serve God. During these Lenten services, he said, was a good time for them to look within themselves, examine their hearts and their actions and see wherein they were untrue to their vows. He appealed to the indolent to not only renew their good promises, but to carry them out. Come back to God and be true and decided followers of the humble Nazarene. He urged the young men to be decided and firm in Christian duty and give up all those practices in life which are sinful. Do right on all occasions, lead honorable Christian lives, do the best you can, he said, and you will bring happiness to yourself here and in the world to come, please God and win the blessings of heaven.

Washington's birthday was observed in an appropriate way yesterday morning at the Plymouth Congregational church. At the morning service the Grand Army posts and other military organizations were present and the pastor, Rev. J. S. Ainslie, preached a patriotic sermon. Prof. Miles, of the Taylor university, had charge of the singing. The services were of a very interesting character.

At the Baptist tabernacle yesterday morning Pastor Northrop preached on the subject, "Lazy Sinners," and after the sermon baptized ten persons. In the afternoon he held a special service for women. The audience room was crowded and the exercises were interesting and inspiring. At the close of the afternoon sermon sixteen ladies arose for prayers.

At the morning services of the First Presbyterian church yesterday fourteen persons were received into full membership. Eighteen new members were received last Sunday, and a number of others will join the church next Sunday.

A patriotic service was held last evening at the Simpson M. E. church. There was a large attendance and Rev. J. M. Driver delivered an eloquent and interesting discourse on the theme: "George Washington; His Life and Times."

Interesting services were held yesterday afternoon at both the city and railroad departments of the Young Men's Christian association. At the city department Prof. H. B. Fry, of the Taylor university, delivered the address.

The Free Methodists commenced a series of revival meetings last night, which will continue during the week. At the services yesterday Rev. H. H. Cannon, the district chairman, and other ministers were in attendance.

Evangelist Blaney will continue the revival services at Schroeder hall, corner Broadway and Washington streets, this week, except Friday. His subject this evening will be: "Did the Murdered Man go to Hell and His Murderer to Heaven!" Tuesday, "The Cry of the Troubled Soul;" Wednesday, "What Became of the Crucified Thief;" Thursday, "A Query Answered—Who Baptized John, the Baptist!"

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.

The Birthday Anniversary of Mrs. R. R. Doty Pleasantly Celebrated.

Yesterday was the forty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Mrs. R. E. Doty, of 352 Hanna street, and in honor of the event a surprise party was given the lady Saturday evening, in which about forty persons, friends of the family, participated. They took with them an elegant antique oak rocker, which, in a neat little speech, one of the guests presented to the fair hostess. During the evening a supper consisting of all the good things the season affords was spread, and the scene in the dining room was a merry one. The entire affair was very pleasant, both to hostess and guests, and will always be recalled to memory with pleasure by all concerned. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Northrop, Mr. and Mrs. Philley, Mr. and Mrs. Medsker, Mrs. R. M. Hayes, Mr. J. W. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, M. Oressler and wife, J. Kiplinger and wife, Harry Rogers and wife, Wm. Turner and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, J. H. Franke and wife, John Forbing and wife, Mrs. Warrick and daughter, Mrs. McAfee, Mrs. B. C. Skinner, Mrs. H. Gillman, Mrs. M. Mauck, Lillian Matthews, J. W. Minnich and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ashrook, of Ada, Ohio. For the music and recitations much credit is due Misses Abbie Doty, Mamie Lee, Ada Warwick and Lillian Matthews.

Brilliant List of Attractions to Be on the Boards.

Mattie Vickers, who can be remembered here as far back as in the days of the Olympic Theater, will appear at the Temple this evening in her new play, "Edelweiss." Miss Vickers possesses a charming stage presence and is an artist in her line of work.

Next Wednesday's attraction at the Temple will be that favorite and distinguished actress Rhea, in her grand impersonation of "Josephine, Empress of the French." Rhea will bring a company of intelligent and painstaking people, who will fittingly present their respective characters, including William Harris, in one of the greatest portrayals of character known to the stage, in which he has won fame and renown, in his intepretation of Napoleon Bonaparte.

Manager Simonson is pleased to assure the operatic event of the season in the complete production of Alfons Cibulka's masterpiece, "Amorita," Friday evening, Feb. 27, by the famous Pauline Hall, and a company of sixty people. Pauline Hall will appear as Angelo, a sculptor.

The quaint comedy, "Samuel of Posen," will be presented at the Temple next Saturday, Feb. 28, by M. B. Curtis and an excellent company. Mr. Curtis is ably seconded in his efforts to amuse by Miss Albina DeMer, a talented and handsome actress, in her original role of Celeste.

FRACTURED BONES.

James Dalton and Other Unfortunates on the Retired List.

James Dalton, a laborer residing at 58 West Williams street, had a bad fall yesterday while on his own premises and suffered a compound fracture to his leg. He is quite aged and the injury may go hard with him. The injured man is now at the City hospital.

Michael Funk, the cellar foreman of Centlivre's brewery, was injured while repairing a force pump Saturday evening. His leg was fractured in two places between the knee and ankle.

THE Chinese are no more welcome in Java than in many other countries. They introduce the consumption of opium, to the impoverishment of the poorer classes. Chinese money-lending also works untold mischief among the poor, who have to pay such high interest that ruin and misery befall most of them when they once take to borrowing, and this results in an increase of crime.

ENGLISH thieves are using a contrivance looking like an ordinary walking stick, but which is so arranged that by pressing a spring at the handle the ferule will spread apart and form a sort of spring clip that will take hold of anything that is within reach. The thing is called the "Continental lifting stick," and is used to take goods from behind counters when the shopman's back is turned.

JUST why King Kalakaua should burn with desire to visit this country for the purpose of making the acquaintance of our politicians is hard to understand. Unless there be something in it for the politicians his royal nibs will have a hard time getting on in the world. It may be that he is ambitious to fill the vacancy caused by the sudden demise of our estimable friend, the lamented Sitting B.

IN Paris in districts settled with poor families there are to be found nickel-in-the-slot stands, into which a 5-centime piece (equal to our copper cent) can be dropped, which will allow a button to be pressed that will immediately cause a stream of boiling hot water to flow until nine quarts have been delivered, when it stops. This is found to be a great opportunity for economy with poor families—the cost of hot water so obtained being much less than it would be if a fire had to be made to heat it. Water is also thus used by hackmen in cans, to keep the feet of their customers warm in cold weather.

THE day after the tobacco factory in Madrid was burned 10,000 women invaded the palace court yard, and Queen Christine gave orders that a delegation should be allowed to come to her. It was a strange sight, says an eyewitness, to see those cigarieres, with their shawls crossed on their hips and their red foulard handkerchiefs on their heads, mounting the staircase of Charles V.—never before so invaded. They brought with them a little boy about the age of the young king, who, mounted on the shoulders of his mother, lisped out a little speech to the queen. Queen Christine, much touched, took the young fellow on her knee and kissed him several times. The queen promised help, and in the meantime gave $2,000 to the cigarieres.

With the 19th century dawned the era of wonders. It has also proven an era of surprises—for notwithstanding its giant strides toward knowledge, we are told that there are still in some places a few citizens who have not heard of Salvation Oil.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Representative Thiele's bill, requiring cigarette dealers to take out a license costing $200 per year, was called up in the senate Saturday. After a good many more remarks and a little argument, a vote was taken on the minority report of the committee, which was to indefinitely postpone the further consideration of the bill. The minority report was not adopted, but the majority report, which favored the passage of the bill, was, by a small majority.

In the house the regular order of business being bills in second reading, the first under consideration was that of Senator Akin, increasing the salaries of wardens of the state prisons to $2,500. The committee recommended its passage, which was concurred in, and the measure was advanced to its third reading without opposition.

Senator Howard's bill concerning the powers and duties of cities and towns, regulating the manner in which assessments shall be made for street improvement, was reported back by the committee, with certain amendments, which were concurred in. Mr. McCullough offered an amendment, providing that the provisions of this act shall not apply to cities of over 100,000 inhabitants (Indianapolis), which was also agreed to, and the bill went to its third reading.

Mr. Claypool asked permission to introduce a bill, which was acceded to, which, he said, would put several thousand dollars in the state treasury. The act, he said, authorized the sale of certain land, now standing in the name of the state, which had been used as the location of an academy at Fairview, Rush county, which institution had not been in existence for twenty years. The bill was introduced and was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Hench made a motion instructing the judiciary committee to report back, by Monday, his bill prohibiting public officers and members of the legislature from accepting or using railroad passes. Mr. Fowler moved to lay this motion on the table and this prevailed—yeas, 45; nays, 25. In explaining his vote, Mr. Hench said that if the motion carried it would prevent any legislation on this subject, and a lively discussion followed.

Mr. Oppenheim, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported back the general taxation bill, a very voluminous measure of 262 sections, and the discussion on it consumed the balance of the day's session.

AT a test of steel manufactured at Reading, Pa., the other day a one-inch bar broke at a strain of 283,833 pounds, "being about 20,000 pounds in excess of the highest record authoritatively known." The test was made under the supervision of Government officers.

A CLEVELAND paper says the raising of $550, more or less, in the Michigan State Prison to buy a silver tea set for the warden is an original idea for which the State may expect credit. If we only had the gallows here we should expect to see murderers presenting the hangman with gold watches or diamond pins.

IT is thought that the oldest timber in the world that has been subjected to the use of man is that found in an old temple in Egypt, in connection with stone-work known to be at least 4,000 years old. It was the only wood used in the construction of the temple and is in the form of ties, holding the stones together.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League of the Berry street M. E. church will give an entertainment in the church Tuesday evening next, for which a nice program has been arranged. The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

The cows of a Bucks county, Pa., farmer died from eating particles of lead ore.

I have a cousin who is a printer, says ex-Mayor J. B. Loughran, of North Des Moines, Iowa. Some years ago he was employed in this city where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured him and that was the first I ever knew of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have been strongly in its favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that this remedy is the best in the world. That may be strong language, but that is what I think. For sale by druggists.

LORD TOLLEMACHE, who has just died in London at the age of 82, was known as the best landlord in Great Britain. Although the most uncompromising of tories, he divided his vast estates into small holdings, allotted three acres to each laborer for garden, grazing and, tillage; demanded that a cow and a pig be kept; had his tenants taught butter and cheese making and allowed them time to cultivate their holdings, the results of his liberal policy appearing in a large increase of the value of his property, and the most prosperous and contented tenantry in the United Kingdom.

We should like to give a new chimney for every one that breaks in use.

We sell to the wholesale dealer; he to the retail dealer; and he to you.

It is a little awkward to guarantee our chimneys at three removes from you.

We'll give you this hint. Not one in a hundred breaks from heat; there is almost no risk in guaranteeing them. Talk with your dealer about it. It would be a good advertisement for him.

The Portrait of a Lady

Painted on paper by the pen of such a novelist as Henry James will do very well, but the real portrait of a real lady is a very different affair. Has she pimples on her face, or blotches? Is her complexion sallow? If so, the conscientious artist in this realistic age will have to put them all down. The lady's remedy for her pimples, blotches and sallowness is S.S.S. the great vegetable remedy for the blood. There can be no beauty where there is no health, whereas the most commonplace features are rendered piquant and interesting by a beautiful complexion S.S.S. restores strength and vigor to the system, gives tone to the digestive organs, and cures all nervous disorders. The potency of this wonderful blood medicine is unquestionable, and yet, powerful as it is, it may be taken by the feeblest child and by the most delicate female. It has no rival in the wide field which it covers. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases Mailed Free.

TICKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

At the meeting of the National Association of General Ticket and Passenger Agents held in Chicago last week, action was taken which, when understood, will be highly appreciated by the traveling public and business men. It was the adoption of a uniform system for accounting for prepaid orders. A. J. Smith, secretary of the association, in speaking of this matter to a reporter of the Cleveland Leader, said: "It will lead to the general adoption by the railroad of a plan whereby any person can purchase at any station a ticket from a remote point to that station. It will be like telegraphing money, a financial arrangement that has been found very convenient and has come into general use in late years. By the system of accounting adopted this week, it will be to the interest of every ticket agent to make sales of this kind, because the price of the ticket instead of being sent, with some inconvenience and at no credit to the agent, to the road having the initial point, will be forwarded by the agent to his own superior officer, and the amount will be credited to his own office sales. Under the same order of things any person can purchase a ticket, or more properly an order for a ticket, from any point reached by rail to his own station, and either forward it by mail to the desired passenger, or he can have the ticket furnished to the passenger on notice by wire. The conveniences in many situations in commercial and social life are apparent."

BRIEF MENTION.

George Burger, Pittsburg engineer, is sick.

Supt. C. D. Law went to Pittsburg last night.

No. 5 on the Pittsburg was one hour and twenty minutes late this morning.

Washington's birthday is being observed by our shops to day and items are scarce.

The Fort Wayne Furniture company still continue to run their works thirteen hours a day.

P. J. Callen, a brakeman on the Fort Wayne road, has returned to work after a visit with his parents at Convoy, Ohio.

James Craig is again at work at Rhinesmith & Simonson's factory. He was off a few days on account of sickness.

Eugene Martin has taken a position as fireman on the Grand Rapids road. He was formerly a caller for the same road.

Adam H. Seabold, a switchman in the Nickel Plate yards, got his right hand badly pinched yesterday morning while coupling cars. Dr. Rosenthal amputated three fingers at the St. Joseph hospital.

Convenient offices have been fitted up at Huntington, Ind., for Superintendent Merrill, he having decided to make that point the headquarters of the Chicago and Erie road so far as transportation is concerned.

The Pittsburg freight office and all the departments in the shops are closed to allow the men to properly observe Washington's birthday. This is the first time in twenty years that this holiday was observed by closing the shops.

Railroad stockholders are getting very tired of the expensive manner in which the officials ride over the lines. It is estimated that the average daily cost of running a private car over the road is $25. Some officials are now traveling in public coaches, and hope in this way to discourage the extravagant use of private cars.

Engineer Thomas Ogler, of the Nickel Plate road, has returned from Hot Springs, Ark., much improved in health.

Mr. George Potter and bride returned to their home in this city. Mr. Potter is assistant civil engineer of the Nickel Plate road.

A Wabash car jumped a frog at the Pittsburg crossing yesterday morning and ditched four freight cars loaded with cotton. No one was hurt, and the track was soon cleared. Conductor Walt Lefford was in charge of the train.

Michael Funk had his right leg fractured in two places Saturday evening while working with a steam pump at the Centlivre brewery. He was taken to his home where the injured limb was dressed by Dr. Schilling. Mr. Funk is cellar foreman at the brewery.

Michael Moran, one of the conductors who resigned from the G. R. and I. last summer, is now running a freight train on the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas. James A. Smith, who also resigned from the Grand Rapids and Indiana last summer, is running one of the Chicago and Alton's handsome vestibule passenger trains between Chicago and St. Louis.

The painters and the bosses at Indianapolis are at war. The painters demand an increase of wages from thirty to thirty-two and one-half cents per hour, with eight hours to constitute a day's work. The increase was refused, and hence the trouble. The master painters will submit a compromise proposition to the journeymen on the 25th inst., which will probably be accepted.

E. B. White, of this city, was married at Bluffton last week. The Bluffton Eagle says: "Another Bluffton belle is 'taken.' Miss Annie C. Fitch the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fitch, was married at half past ten this morning to Ela Burt White, a popular and handsome young machinist of Fort Wayne. The interesting ceremony took place at the bride's home, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, Rev. J. E. Weir officiating. Mr. and Mrs. White departed on the 10:50 train for their future home at Fort Wayne. The bride has many friends among Bluffton young people who extend best wishes for their future happiness." Mr. White is a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, and while his engagement to Miss Fitch was well known, the wedding was not expected to take place for some time. The bride and groom have the best wishes of the SENTINEL.

How to Break Up a Severe Cold.

When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit, we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it is. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is all it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by druggists.

Combining Comfort, Economy and Respectability.

The Santa Fe route, realizing the fact that there is a demand for a service to California and the Pacific Coast which will secure to the traveler even a greater degree of comfort than is given on the regular trains, has organized a series of special Santa Fe route excursions on regular dates between Chicago, Kansas City and all California points.

The most successful and satisfactory low rate excursions ever run to California have been over the Santa Fe route, and this company, with its own line from Chicago to California, smooth track and fine equipment will make these excursions more popular and successful than ever.

The excursions leave Chicago every Thursday at 7:50 p.m. from the Dearborn station of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and leave Kansas City every Friday at 10:45 a. m. and 11 a. m. They are personally conducted by salaried excursion agents of the Santa Fe route, who accompany the parties to destination, and give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort.

for their surplus crop. Here farmers are able to work out of doors every day in the year, and stock run on grass from January to January. Many farmers in Kansas and in the north-west are selling whatever equity they have in their farms, buying the cheap lands of Texas. And in many instances clearing the price of the land from their first years crops. The latest census shows that few farmers in Texas have their farms mortgaged. The Texas school fund is the largest of any commonwealth in the world, aggregating in cash and lands some sixty millions of dollars. State taxes are ten cents on the hundred dollars.

We can invest money in high grade first mortgages for non-residents bearing 10 per cent. We do not make any charge for commissions from buyers or lenders of money. The scene of the high waters at the confluence of the St. Marys, St. Joseph and Maumee rivers is an unusual one, and the grand sight of rushing waters was witnessed yesterday and to-day by many people. The already swollen waters raised eleven inches yesterday at noon and the same hour to day. There is a probability that the river will recede considerably during the night. The Union flats and part of Boltes & Remy's addition, are under water, but little damage has been reported. The water is higher than it has been since the flood of four years ago. Lakeside is safe, the dyke proving a good protection.

On account of sudden illness, Dr. Fry, of Taylor university, was unable to address the meeting at the City Y. M. C. A. yesterday. Mr. Bowser, the general secretary, conducted a bible reading, in which quite a number of persons participated. The meeting was a very pleasant one. A nice feature was the new orchestra, composed of young men of the association. The orchestra will meet for practice to-night, and we are informed there are still a few more young men wanted. This is certainly a good opportunity for young men with musical talent to join an organization which will do them much good.

The Eureka club celebrated their fifth anniversary at their club rooms Saturday night in a very pleasant manner. Addresses, music, diversions and a grand supper served by Seidel made the affair a big success. Those present were Messrs. J. M. Robinson, Max L. Frankenstein, Dr. Carl Schilling, Richard Welch, Al. Riegel, Walter Wells, Will Evans, Henry Gragge, Myron Downing, Paul Richard, Fred J. and Lipes Thieme, Henry Moellering, Fred Gardner, Joe Rossell, Frank Wise, Louis Schmidt, Frank Siebold, Theo. Seemeyer, Frank Billet, Louis Curdes, Paul Schwagman, Herman and Gust Siemon and John Arfield.

The two-headed baby died at the World's museum Saturday afternoon, shortly after THE SENTINEL went to press. It was a wonderful curiosity. The baby was born at Winamac, Ind., June 30, 1890, and was the child of L. C. Hatfield and wife. The parents travelled with it, and already it had been exhibited in many of the principal cities of the United States. The baby had been here just two weeks, and two week's engagements had been entered into for Pittsburgh, Pa., Buffalo, N. Y., and Toronto, Can., but of course these are now cancelled. The remains were taken Saturday evening to Rochester, this state, where the interment took place to-day. Funeral Director Feltner, who embalmed the body, said it was the only instance where he injected chemicals arterially into an infant. The experiment was successful.

PLATE GLASS INSURANCE.

A New Local Company to be Organized in This City.

To-night a new company will be organized in this city to place plate glass insurance. It will be known either as the "Fort Wayne" or the "Indiana" plate glass accident insurance company, and its capital will be represented by gentlemen whose wealth will aggregate more than one-quarter million of dollars. The stockholders will be Murray Hartnett, John Mohr, jr., Louis Fox, J. W. White and J. A. M. Storm. A canvass has elicited a ready response from owners of buildings where plate glass is used, and the new enterprise is a sure go. The headquarters will be in this city, with perhaps Mr. Hartnett as manager, in which case the real estate and other interests of the latter gentleman will in no way be interfered with.

YET AN UNCERTAINTY.

Fort Wayne May go Into the Michigan and Indiana League.

The Indiana State Base Ball league is yet an uncertainty. March 8 is the day when its destiny will be decided, and if at that time the support of the several Indiana base ball towns is not satisfactorily given, Fort Wayne will not waste any of its valuable time, but will go right ahead with other negotiations. To day Manager Meyer received a letter from Al. Buckenberger, who last year managed the Columbus club in the American association. He seeks the co-operation of Fort Wayne to organize the Michigan and Indiana league, to consist of Saginaw, Bay City, Jackson, Detroit, Fort Wayne, Elkhart and South Bend. Mr. Meyer regards the matter in a favorable light. Should the state league fizzle, Mr. Buckenberger's suggestion will be more earnestly considered.

OVERCOME WITH COAL GAS.

Mrs. W. H. Quick and Miss Jackson Have a Close Call.

At an early hour this morning Dr. J. J. Ogle and Dr. E. J. McOscar were summoned to the residence of W. H. Quick, on Euclid avenue, near the east yards, where Mrs. Quick and her baby and a Miss Jackson were in a state of unconsciousness from the effects of asphyxiation. Their case was extremely critical and it seemed that their resuscitation could only be accomplished through the grace of Providence. The patients were at last brought out of their dangerous condition and are now in a fair way to recover.

The circumstances are related as follows: At an early hour this morning Mr. Quick, who is a night switchman at the east yards, returned home to find that his wife had not risen as usual. Persistent knocking availed not, so he went to the rear of the house and kicked in the kitchen door, thus effecting an entrance. He was almost overcome by the stifling atmosphere, which was impregnated with the poisonous gas from a defective coal stove. He groped his way to the windows and soon permitted the gas to escape. Hastening to his wife's bedroom he discovered herself and babe unconscious, and in the same room was Miss Jackson, a young lady residing in the neighborhood, who had on several occasions remained over night with Mrs. Quick. The patients remained unconscious until a considerable time after medical attendance was at hand and their case was at first regarded as fatal. Strange to say the infant fared the best of the victims, probably because it had slept in its mother's arms and had not inhaled so much of the gas.

HOME BUILDING AND LOAN.

A Local Branch of the People's Association, of Minneapolis.

For some days past Mr. Feuchtmacher, representative of the People's Building and Loan association, Minneapolis, Minn., has been in the city, and, assisted by T. E. Covington, the florist, has been soliciting for a new branch to be located in this city. The work has been far enough accomplished, as they claim, to justify an organization and such will be effected early this week. It is claimed that this association has an authorized capital of $50,000,000, with shares at $100 each.

NOT DEAD.

A Painful Report of Grace Howell is Found to be False.

A morning paper is badly in error by making the grievous announcement of the death of Miss Grace Howell, of Miner street, this city, said to have occurred at Adrian, Mich. The facts of the case are that the young lady suffered from congestion of the brain here, and recovering slightly, she went to Adrian to visit and recuperate. She did not suffer a fatal relapse as stated but is at this writing convalescent. Miss Howell is a member of the Christian church and has many friends who will be glad to her of her regained health. The young lady is the daughter of Charles A. Howell, of 39 Miner street, who is a machinist and a respectable man. He is much disturbed at the report, the authority of which he lays at the feet of some meddling person with malicious intent, who no doubt misrepresented the case to a newspaper reporter.

MANY BAPTISTS

Will Be in the City Next Week to Attend a Missionary Meeting.

A meeting of great importance will be held on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, March 3, at the Baptist church. It is the foreign missionary quarterly meeting of all the Baptist societies in northern Indiana. The following distinguished ministers will be present and participate in the exercises: Rev. Drs. Murdock and McKenzie, of Boston; Dr. Henson, of Chicago; Dr. Taylor, of Indianapolis; Dr. Cavins, of Peru, and Rev. Dr. Stinson, of Terre Haute. All the Baptist clergymen and leading laymen in the northern part of the state will be in attendance and the meeting will be of great interest.

This meeting is an important one and our Baptist citizens will make it a success. A similar meeting will be held on Monday, March 2, at Indianapolis, for the clergymen and laymen of the southern part of the state.

NAMING THE BABY.

How a Perplexing Question Was Settled by Friends of the Parents.

Saturday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. Conover sat in their cozy home, on University street, discussing the question: "What name shall we give the baby?" the front door swung violently open and some twenty-five ladies and gentlemen marched into the room. The object of the intruders was twofold: To name the little one, who had been permitted to live all these two long months with no name other than "Baby," and to commemorate the wedding of the happy papa and mamma, which important event transpired nineteen years ago. The guests meant business and were not in the least backward about assuming temporary control of the Conover household. They presented the baby with a handsome cloak and straightway set about to name her. Slips of paper bearing some fifty names, were placed in a hat and from those the father and mother were to select one for their little girl. After looking over the list they decided that Luella was the most pleasing to both, and the baby was so named. Then followed refreshments, music and social games and conversation, until the family clock warned the guests that further festivities would end in Sabbath desecration. Hastily bidding the host and hostess good-night and wishing them many returns of their wedding anniversary, the happy throng departed for their homes.

THAT BLESSED BABY !

Our Great Window on Court Street Filled Full of Baby Carriages This Week. Spebial Sale of These Goods for the Next Ten days.

Nothing is too nice for the baby. No matter if the children of a few years ago were hauled about in little dog cart; you don't intend your baby shall be.

The comfort of both parent and child is greatly enhanced by a nicely upholstered Baby Carriage. The earlier you get it the greater use you will have for it. Even if the weather is such that you can, for a time, use it upon the streets but little, you will find it a great aid in caring for a baby in the house.

We have an enormous assortment. All the other stores in the town keeping Baby Carriages could combine their stock and yet would not have more than one-half the number of styles we are showing.

We have the agency for the best made, including Sweet's and the Heywood and Wakefield companies.

These buggies have the best springs and the best patents in Parasols and other attachments.

Our prices are but little above cost. We can sell you the ordinary $12 carriage for $9, and he $15 carriage for $10 to $12. Very nice styles as low as $6, $7 and $8.

When you are ready to buy one for that "new baby" come and see us.
